My name is Christopher Kasongo. I was born in 1966 in Kitwe, come from a family of 9 children and I'm No. 2, I'm married with 8 children.

I learned Art in (DRC) Congo at a school called Academe De Beaux Art in 1982 to 1987 and I started painting 1989.

I have sold several Artworks both local and foreign Art collector. My main medium of painting is oil and acrylics. The subjects I like most are market places and village setups and modern Art semi abstract and Portrait.

I love to work in Reds and Blues, to show rhythm of Africa weather and situations.

I attended several workshops, in Art and held a lot of group exhibitions. And for the last two (2) years I have collaborated with Welu Zambia and created the African Portrait which was a great achievement for me.

Working with other Artist it has helped me to increase and to know my level spend of painting of which have done more solo exhibitions.

The sky is the limit I shall remain the Artist.
